

By involving students actively in club events, the club will be dedicated to improving students' attitudes towards the environment and bringing social awareness to environmental issues.