Principal's Note:

I am delighted to be associated with the publication of College News, a regular feature of the college, highlighting and showcasing the achievements of the college every year.

Like previous years, this year has also seen many events taking place inside and outside of the campus. The college has produced many talents. The news items that feature prominently in the college news are a means to kindle the latent literary and artistic merit our students have in various areas. The widespread publicity given to the achievements of the students in such activities serves as a great morale booster.
