

Target Groups: The target group of this course is mainly the students of the college and also the undergraduate youths of nearby areas of the institution. By completing these courses they will be able to do something of their own and thereby earn a livelihood. The focal point of these courses is that if a student wants to earn their livelihood after completing these courses, they can start it with minimum amount of capital.